

THE PROPER ROLE OF INSOLVENCY LAW AND IPs IN A GLOBAL “BUST AND BOOM” ECONOMY

Friday April 12, 2019

12.00 lunch and registration
17.30 drinks and close

Court of Appeals
Amsterdam, IJdok 20

INVITATION

The International Insolvency Institute - Netherlands Association for Comparative and International Insolvency Law joint conference:

The proper role of insolvency laws and IP's in a global “bust and boom” economy.

SPEAKERS INCLUDE

Arnoud Boot, corporate finance and financial markets professor, University of Amsterdam, about:
Debt, financial cycle and the real economy

Gabriel Moss QC, South Square, chairing the session:
The future of European insolvency & reorganisation practices

Reinout Vriesendorp, insolvency law professor Leiden University, chairing the session:
Everything in flux: fluid assets and ever-changing creditors

Rolef de Weijs, insolvency law professor University of Amsterdam, chairing the session:
Relaxed insolvency law and its effect on leveraged finance: when priority is only relative

Further speakers to be confirmed

You can register by clicking on the link in the email. Registration fee: €150 (no registration fee for judiciaries). Because of the special venue, the number of delegates is limited to 70.

SPONSORS

HOUTHOFF

DE BRAUW
BLACKSTONE
WESTBROEK

CONTACT

For information please contact the technical committee:

Prof. R.D. Vriesendorp via r.d.vriesendorp@law.leidenuniv.nl

Prof. R.J. de Weijs via r.j.deweijs@uva.nl

CONFERENCE CHAIRS

Mincke Melissen

Frédéric Verhoeven